

30 Scott's Corners Drive, Suite 102
Montgomery, NY 12549
Judy Eurich, President/CPO
Phone: 845-457-4774
Fax: 845-457-4702
www.uwoc.org

2010/2011 COMMUNITY IMPACT FUNDING

HELPING CHILDREN & YOUTH SUCCEED

Ensuring all children and youth are ready for college, work and live by the age of 21.
$106,590

Education: making sure children reach the benchmarks for graduation.

ONE-TO-ONE MENTORING

To provide professionally supported, one to one caring adult mentoring support to children who are at risk/in need, residing in disadvantaged, dysfunctional families; predominantly single parent, grandparent and guardian headed households, who lack supports, have and indicated need for mentoring, and who are desirous of having a mentor.

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Orange County, Nancy A. Kosloski, Executive Director
253 South William Street, Newburgh, NY 12550 (845) 562-5900

YES, LADIES

To bring girls to grade proficiency by one-to-one tutoring in intensive English development, as well as provide guidance and help for homework. The goal is also to develop self-confidence, and leadership skills, community outreach, and participation in the arts to counteract the tendency of this population to become pregnant and drop out of school.

Nora Cronin Presentation Academy, Sr. Katherine McKenna PBVM, President
120 South Street, Newburgh, NY 12550 (845) 457-5270

Youth Development: making sure children acquire the knowledge and skills needed to become contributing citizens to the community.

A FRIEND'S HOUSE

To create ambassadors and leaders among the most unlikely part of our youth population who will bring the principles of Positive Youth Development to the fabric of our neighborhoods, schools, churches, social centers and work environments which will make lasting positive change in how Orange County youth grow into happy and productive adults.

HONORehg, Inc., John M. Harper, Executive Director
38 Seward Avenue, Middletown, NY 10940 (845) 343-7115

TARGETING THE "WHOLE CHILD": BODY, MIND AND SPIRIT

To enable all young people, especially those who need us most, to reach their full potential as productive, caring, responsible citizens. We want to help children and youth succeed and to reach their highest potential.

Town of Wallkill Boys & Girls Club, Inc., Alexis Eggleton, Executive Director
60 Creamery Road, PO Box 14, Circleville, NY 10919 (845) 361-2222

YOUTH SERVICES

To see an increased improvement both in school and in behavior; to increase parent participation; to teach our youth to appreciate and give back to their community; to provide safe and structured environments to keep youth off the street, thereby decreasing the amount of crime committed by youth.

Salvation Army, Newburgh Corps, Lt. Rohan Gage, Executive Director
234 Van Ness Street, Newburgh, NY 12550 (845) 562-0413

PROMOTING FINANCIAL STABILITY

Assisting individuals and families move toward financial independence and/or enhance their standard of living. $66,880

CHILD CARE SCHOLARSHIP MANAGEMENT

To support the financial stability of low-income working and student parents and the safety of children, by providing scholarship assistance to offset the fee for child care for children enrolled at NYS OCFS licensed and registered Child Care Centers, Family/Group Day Care Programs, and School Age Child Care, including summer camp programs.

Child Care Council of Orange County, Inc., Elizabeth Kuriplach, Executive Director
40 Matthews Street, Goshen, NY 10924 (845) 294-4012

CRISIS INTERVENTION

Meets unexpected, emergency type needs. Provides such goods and services as food baskets, furniture vouchers, burnout assistance, rent/mortgage assistance, utility assistance, prescription medication assistance, Christmas assistance, back to school assistance, temporary shelter referrals, and more.

Salvation Army, Newburgh Corps, Lt. Rohan Gage, Executive Director
234 Van Ness Street, Newburgh, NY 12550 (845) 562-0413

CRISIS INTERVENTION

Provides immediate and practical assistance to those in need in the form of rental, utility and grocery assistance. Provides beneficiaries with resources to help them to become self-sufficient.

Salvation Army, Port Jervis Corps, Captain Alan Krueger, Executive Director
99 Ball Street, Port Jervis, NY 12771 (845) 856-3214

READING ENHANCES THE STANDARD OF LIVING

Provide literary services to adults at the lowest levels of language proficiency to improve literacy and quality of life issues so they can go on to BOCES, SUNY Orange, or job skills training.

Literacy Orange, Christine Rolando, Executive Director
70 Fulton Street, Middletown, NY 10940 (845) 341-5460

SAVE YOURSELF

To expand and strengthen economic stability for victims of domestic violence. The program addresses economic literacy, emergency financial assistance and tuition assistance to victims of domestic violence who are seeking Safe Homes' services.

Safe Homes of Orange County, Kellyann Kostyal, Executive Director
PO Box 649, Newburgh, NY 12550 (845) 562-5365

PROMOTING HEALTH & WELL-BEING

BASIC HEALTH CARE COVERAGE AND PREVENTION – Providing access to quality, affordable medical, dental, and behavioral health care and wellness services. $35,530

FRIENDLY VISITORS/BRIDGE TO WELLNESS

Trained volunteers offer services that help adults of modest means living with a chronic illness or disability gain access to medical care and support their emotional well-being.

Jewish Family Service of Orange County, Inc., Sonia Wagner, LCSW-R, Executive Director
720 Route 17M, Middletown, NY 10940 (845) 341-1173

MIDDLETOWN ADDICTIONS CRISIS CENTER

To outreach and engage for stabilization and detox Orange County homeless men and women who are not insured and who suffer from substance abuse, thus, creating positive change in their lives and in the fabric of the community by reducing the number of street homeless, improving public safety, reducing crime and relieving the burden on area hospitals, law enforcement agencies and the criminal justice system.

HONORehg, Inc., John M. Harper, Executive Director
38 Seward Avenue, Middletown, NY 10940 (845) 343-7115

RAPE CRISIS SERVICES

Provides crisis intervention, counseling, information, referral and sexual assault nurse examiner services to victims of sexual assault. These services are provided in a non-judgmental and compassionate manner taking into consideration the special needs of victims and co-victims. Provides sexual assault prevention education geared toward school-age youth.

Mental Health Association in Orange County, Inc., Nadia Allen, Executive Director
73 County Highway 108, Middletown, NY 10940 (845) 343-2400

REHABILITATIVE CLINIC SERVICES

Provides outpatient rehabilitative therapies for newborns to senior citizens with all levels of disabilities and special needs including audiology, physical and occupational therapy, aquatic therapy, psychology, speech-language pathology, general dentistry and more.

Inspire, Marcel Martino, President & CEO
2 Fletcher Street, Goshen, NY 10924 (845) 294-7300

2010/2011 Projected Fund Distribution
One-Year Community Impact Funded Programs	$209,000
Multiple-Year Community Impact Funded Programs	$46,957
Women’s Leadership Fund	$32,656
Projected Donor Designation Distributions	$456,812
Community Impact and Targeted Care Grants	$30,000
Total Projected Distribution	$775,425